SME Self-assessment

What is an SME? Small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) are defined by the following criteria:

- EU recommendation 2003/361 (ES, DA, DE, EL, EN, FR, IT, NL, PT, RO, SI, SK, SV, BG, CS, ET, GA, HR, LV, LT, HU, PL, RU, UK)
- Document 32003H0361R\(03\) (BG, CS, ET, GA, HR, LV, LT, HU, PL, RU, UK)

The main factors determining whether an enterprise is an SME are:

- staff headcount
- either turnover or balance sheet total

Company category	Staff headcount	Turnover	OR	Balance sheet total
Medium-size	< 250	≤ € 50 m		≤ € 43 m
Small	< 50	≤ € 10 m		≤ € 10 m
Micro	< 10	≤ € 2 m		≤ € 2 m

These ceilings apply to the figures for individual firms only. A firm that is part of a larger group may need to include staff headcount/turnover/balance sheet data from that group too.

To benefit from size-related benefits, companies may need to provide evidence of their SME status.

EU programmes

Todos los ciudadanos de la UE pueden solicitar financiación de la UE. La UE tiene varios programas de financiación diferentes que puede solicitar, dependiendo de la naturaleza de su empresa o proyecto. Las oportunidades de financiación también están disponibles a través de programas que serán ejecutados directamente por los Estados miembros, como el Mecanismo de Recuperación y Resiliencia o el Fondo de Transición Justa. Antes de solicitar financiamiento, siempre consulte las pautas de la convocatoria para ver si es elegible.

Research and Innovation

Every year researchers funded by the European Union produce a wealth of research results. These may include know-how, innovative solutions and technologies, algorithms, proof of feasibility, new business models, policy recommendations, guidelines, prototypes, demonstrators, databases and datasets, new infrastructures, and more. For these results to benefit society, they must be made available to the relevant people and used to generate further impact.

Dissemination and exploitation

The European Commission designed a dissemination and exploitation strategy to support the journey from results to impact, whether via market uptake, wider scientific use, advice for policymaking, or otherwise.
